SERMON NOTES

My Cup Overflows

Psalm 23 September 17, 2023

START TALKING | asking questions to get you thinking.

1. How has working together with people you love made difficult tasks easier and purposeful?
2. How are sheep protected against their predators?

START SHARING | asking questions that engage with the message.

3. Read Psalm 23. Read Psalm 23:5A, 2 Corinthians 2:14-16, 1 Corinthians 1:18 and 1 John 5:4-5. Pastor Steve relates that “we are already victorious”. Describe the details of the event featured in Psalm 23:5A and how the verses in 2 Cor, 1 Cor and 1 John relate.
4. Read 1 Peter 2:7, 9. How does this relate to our main Scripture “You anoint my head with oil”? What are our benefits and responsibilities in these verses?
5. At the end of verse 5 David states “My cup overflows”. What does this mean and how does it relate to 2 Peter 1:3-4?

START LIVING | asking questions that apply God’s Word to daily life.

6. How has today’s sermon encouraged you to live among your enemies while knowing God has called you and gives you strength and victory?
7. How can you be the joyful, confident, peaceful fragrance of the knowledge of Jesus to those who are being saved?
