

Get Your Eyes Up! – Psalm 121

November 3, 2024

START TALKING | *Get your group thinking.

1. What has been your response to the constant flow of political information during this election?
2. What are some things you are drawn to for daily support and comfort?

START SHARING | *Get your group engaging with the message.

3. Read Psalm 121:1-4 and Psalm 23:1-3. Describe how these verses encourage believers to intentionally and obediently walk in their pursuit of Jesus.
4. Read Isaiah 40:28 and Psalm 121:3-4. Describe the hope and comfort that is derived from God who sees you.
5. Read Psalm 121:5-8. Pastor Koby explained how these verses use God's personal name, Yahweh. What do these verses and the use of God's name teach us about keeping our eyes up?
6. Read verse 8 again. What did Pastor Koby teach about the importance of God keeping watch over us "from this time forth and forevermore"?

START LIVING | *Get your group applying God's Word to daily life.

7. What actions can you take to keep your eyes and heart "looking up" to God as you walk the path He has set before you?
8. How does the Gospel message of eternal life through Christ encourage you in your struggles and sufferings?
