

Godly Leadership Begins in the Home – 1 Timothy 3:1-5, 12

May 4, 2025

START TALKING | Get your group thinking.

1. What values shape different cultures' expectations of leadership?
2. How does leadership in business or politics compare to service-driven leadership?

START SHARING | Get your group engaging with the message.

Read 1 Timothy 3:1-5, 12

3. Godly men must faithfully lead their wives.
 - a. How can husbands model Christ's sacrificial love in marriage, as taught in Mark 10:43-45?
 - b. In what ways do daily decisions reflect service toward others or the pursuit of selfish desires?
 - c. How can Ephesians 5:25-26 guide us in leading others?
 - d. How can husbands lead their families while choosing to serve the Lord, as seen in Joshua 24:15, amid life's challenges, trials and adversity?
4. Godly men faithfully lead their children.
 - a. How does Deuteronomy 6 guide us in leading children to love God?
 - b. How does Psalm 127:3-5 describe what our attitude toward our children should be?
 - c. How can God's discipline in Hebrews 12:5-11 teach us to lead our children toward holiness?
5. What does it mean to lead with dignity (1 Tim 3:4) and what hinders this?

START LIVING | Get your group applying God's Word to daily life.

6. What steps do you need to take to lead with dignity and integrity, earning the respect of family, friends, and colleagues through humility and service?