Watch Yourself – 1 Timothy 4:12-16

June 1, 2025

START TALKING | Get your group thinking.

1. How does moral relativism challenge and conflict with a Christian's understanding of ethical behavior?
2. Give some examples of how Christians might compromise their biblical values.

START SHARING | Get your group engaging with the message.

Read 1 Timothy 4:12-16

3. Paul exhorts Timothy—and us today—to live out our faith.
 - a. How does our speech reflect the condition of our heart, and how can we ensure that our words consistently honor God? (Matthew 15:18; Ephesians 4:25, 29)
 - b. What are the biggest challenges in aligning our daily conduct with Christ's teachings, and how can we overcome them? (1 Timothy 4:15; John 14:15)
 - c. In what ways does experiencing God's love influence us to extend love to those around us? (John 15:13; 1 John 4:7-8)
 - d. What specific habits or disciplines help us remain steadfast in Christ and resist drifting away? (1 Corinthians 9:24; Hebrews 12:1-2)
 - e. What is the extent and importance of the battle for purity? (Matthew 5:27-28, 1 Corinthians 6:16-20)
4. In keeping a close watch on ourselves, what reveals that our faith is genuine? (2 Corinthians 13:5; Galatians 5:22-23; James 2:17; Ephesians 2:8)
5. What sacrifices or choices help us reflect Christ's character as His ambassadors? (2 Corinthians 5:20; 1 Timothy 4:16)

START LIVING | Get your group applying God's Word to daily life.

6. Identify the area in which you need to grow the most—speech, conduct, love, faithfulness, or purity. What needs to change?
7. What will you do to cultivate a deeper, more faithful pursuit of God, ensuring that your relationship with Him is a lifelong commitment?
